

Criteria:

A pesticide product can legally be applied to cannabis under state law if the active ingredient found in the product is exempt from residue tolerance requirements and the product is either exempt from registration requirements or registered for a use that is broad enough to include use on cannabis.

CDPR's Pesticide use guidelines

Must be exempt from US EPA's residue tolerance requirements

AND

FIFRA 25b exempt

OR

Label must be broad enough to include cannabis